

FOXED AGAIN!

Once upon a time Fox and Coyote were friends. Today they are not.

This story [rose/ went/ tells] why.

Coyote ate all of his [held/ food/ dawn]. He needed to look for [see/ down/ more]. While he was hunting, he saw Fox. "[Time/ Hello/ Self] there, Fox," said Coyote. "Hello," said Fox, [sure/ who/ day] was leaning against a mountain.

"I [am/ sat/ we] hunting for food because I have [eaten/ jump/ march] all I had," said Coyote. Coyote's [sweet/ given/ eyes] grew big. He said, "I would [fell/ like/ part] a big, fat hen to eat!" Fox [from/ knee/ said] he could not catch the hen. [Sit/ He/ Was] said he had to hold up the mountain. "[Tow/ Went/ Why] do you have to hold up the mountain?" [said/ made/ have] Coyote. "Because it will crush us [if/ way/ can] I don't," said Fox. Coyote thought [and/ for/ hit] a minute. He had an idea.

"I'll [hold/ rain/ pill] up the mountain while you catch [the/ say/ use] hen," said Coyote, who thought he [come/ had/ went] a smart idea. "Very well, my [works/ never/ friend]," said Fox with a sly grin. "[Only/ Swap/ Did] places with me while I fetch [can/ job/ our] dinner."

Coyote held up the mountain [fired/ while/ laugh] Fox trotted off. Coyote waited all [day/ jam/ but]. Fox did not come back at [have/ all/ dog]! Coyote had been tricked by Fox. [He/ If/ As] moved away quickly from the mountain. [The/ Gold/ Keep] mountain did not fall. Coyote knew [got/ jam/ he] should not have listened to Fox. "[Mop/ He/ Way] will never trick me again!"

Many [seven/ months/ please] later, Coyote saw Fox by the [cheap/ time/ river]. It was late in the evening. [Felt/ Guy/ The] moon was full and bright. "[As/ I/ So] won't listen to a word he [boy/ says/ toad]," thought Coyote.

Fox was staring down [dream/ same/ into] the river. He did not seem [rat/ for/ to] see Coyote. Coyote looked down into [new/ the/ how] river. There was a big, yellow [over/ gas/ spot]. "I am waiting to catch this [where/ hours/ cheese]," said Fox. "Yum!" thought Coyote. He [hurry/ loved/ wash] cheese. Fox told his friend he [desks/ could/ dinner] not reach it. His arms were [set/ pig/ too] short.

"Your arms are longer," said Fox [age/ we/ to] Coyote. "I will hold you while [lone/ you/ can] get the cheese."

"NO!" said Coyote. "[Are/ Not/ We] again!" Fox promised it was no [bottom/ order/ trick]. Fox lowered Coyote down and then dropped [ask/ yes/ him] into the water. Splash! It was [not/ hear/ fire] cheese. It was the moon! Coyote [sit/ raw/ had] been foxed again!
